Lisa says: "Another thing which you may be interested in: my 3xgreat-grandfather Henry Risien captained one of Sandbach Tinne's ships sailing Liverpool to Demerara 1827-1852, and I've been able to locate the crew lists for many of his voyages. The lists from 1835 give some good info about the crew; including age and birthplace, and so I've compiled an index to the crew. There are also a few deaths - not many, though. Very few of the crew were born in British Guiana, so I'll add them here":
